Notes

Consumer Reports' tests convey a snapshot of the marketplace and do not provide a general conclusion about the levels of BPA in any particular brand or type of product tested. Levels in the same product type purchased at different places or in other brands of similar foods might differ from Consumer Reports' test results.

* Average and range reflect results of three to four samples tested per model.

** = LOQs were 0.1ppb for clear liquids and 0.4ppb for solids/semi-solids. Where the lab reported bpa result of less than a value, the upper bound value was used for calculations

*** = Results of Similac Advance Infant Formula were adjusted for specific gravity. NA = Not Applicable; HDPE = High Density Polyethylene; PP = Polypropylene.

† Two lots tested were sold under the same name (Albacore Solid White Albacore Tuna All Natural- Nothing Added) but differed in UPC code and nutrition information. According to the Customer Service Representative, different batches can have different nutrition information
